This broken soul x17

I, I can't remember the day, when I lie and cried I miss the time, the day, though I try,
to hide it from you,
this broken soul, I can't deny, Arms growin cold Nowhere to run, no one to hold me

This Broken Soul x2

I still remember the way, how you smiled as I cried, you laughed, I bled everyday
, I could never get away from you This broken soul, I can't deny, arms growin so cold,
nowhere to run, no one to hold me

This Broken Soul x2

No one to hold me

I can't remember when, you and I we walk as friends never seen, a foolish idea How can these lies be a good bye now I, I will find,
you in my way,
a different pain,
took inside of me,
I will find x4
you in my way, a different pain took the pride of me, one I'll never hold,

This Broken Soul x8
