I got somebody, I got some
I got somebody, I got some
I got somebody, I got some
I got somebody, I

Was a fool to let you in
After all the things you did to me, I wasn't happy, oh
You held me open like you did
Didn't see the things I should've seen now you remind me

I used to cry every night, you weren't here
Should have been by my side
And now it's time I'm saying that I
I'm making it clear, you should be saying bye bye
'cause I

I got somebody else, the one I've waited for
He gives me loving, all that I wish for
I got somebody else, someone who's really sure
I'm so in love, he's all that I wish for

You still hang out with your friends
Fool around and then pretend to be thinking about me, oh
But now I got somebody new Who doesn't treat me like you used to do and now he's my baby boo
I used to cry every night, you weren't here
Should have been by my side
And now it's time I'm saying that I
I'm making it clear, you should be saying bye bye
'cause I

I got somebody else, the one I've waited for
He gives me loving, all that I wish for
I got somebody else, someone who's really sure
I'm so in love, he's all that I wish for

You did me wrong when I moved on I was free to find someone who loved me
I made up my mind to leave you behind

Now I've got somebody else

I got somebody else, the one I've waited for
He gives me loving, all that I wish for
I got somebody else, someone who's really sure
I'm so in love, he's all that I wish for

I got somebody else, I got somebody else
I got somebody else, I got somebody else
I, someone I've waited for, someone I've waiting for Got somebody

I, someone I've waited for, the one I'm waiting for Got somebody, I got some
I, the one I've waited for, someone I'm waiting for Got somebody, I got some
