It's like a pattern deep ingrained.
It's like a cycle but it's always the same.
Curly headed baby running wild.
Woman that you see here now
She is still that same child

Aha always the same
I never change
Always the same
Always the same
I know my name
I never change
Always the same

Always the same

I've seen that look before
You can't work me out.
Don't try and understand.
You'll always carry that doubt.
You either love me or leave me
But I'll never be tamed.
I'm a mystery to myself
But I'm always the same.

Aha always the same
I never change
Always the same
Always the same
I know my name
I never change
Always the same

Always the same

(It's like a cycle but it's always the same)
(It's like a cycle but it's always the same)
Aha always the same
I never change
Always the same
Always the same

I know my name
I never change
Always the same

Always the same
