At first, it was clear, it was easy to see
Till you're cursed and reversed
And you turned it on me

Like a book, like a cover
You were easy to read
Like a clock, like a mother
You were curious and free

Starred in a movie
That was all about me
You're twisted in the end
In other far away trip

Everybody's in the castle, fast sleep
Wake up, stupid beauty
No time to be weak

You take chances with me
You take chances with me
You take chances with me
You're less realty

Underneath the covers that you wear on a sleeve
Is a time and a place, everything that you live
Trying to be clever, isn't pretty for me
Suffocate in lone and give me room to be
Stopped in a movie that is all about me

Deep in a picture than skipping a dream
I thought you said you never had the measure for me
Get up, it's time to leave

You take chances with me
You take chances with me
You take chances with me
You're less realty

Loose your fizzy heart

You take chances with me
You take chances with me
