Once upon a time
A spider ate a fly
She almost lost her web
Was biting off his head

Iâ€™m not guilty anymore
(You are, you are)
Though it brought me to the ground
(You are, you are)
Iâ€™m not angry anymore
(You are, you are)
Never wanted to be found

Iâ€™ve been feeling mighty weak
Since I donâ€™t get any sleep
I almost lost the balance
Thank God I found my feet

Iâ€™m not guilty anymore
(You are, you are)

Though it brought me to the ground
(You are, you are)
Iâ€™m not angry any more
(You are, you are)
Never wanted to be found

The day is dawning for me
Once upon a time
A spider ate a fly
She almost lost her way
Was biting off his head

Iâ€™m not guilty anymore
(You are, you are)
Though it brought me to the ground
(you are, you are)
Iâ€™m not angry any more
(you are, you are)
Never wanted to be found.
