Everytime we get too "week scene"
It all starts happening
Crazy the weird is
We let it begin
Is the love we have the only scene?
I felt like we should've let it go
But I can't live without you though

How did we get here again?
Why can't we talk, when I thought we were friends?
How did we get this far, eh?
We keep going over the same ground again
Go back to the beginning again
If we keep wasting time
Love worth die in the end
All this shit is making a stand
'Cause we keep going over the same ground again
I'm always nearly going down
Sun is nearly rising
See the quiet in your eyes
Is the anger now subsided?
Is it that you are satisfied?
I never lied...
but did I have to hide?

How did we get here again?
Why can't we talk, when I thought we were friends?
How did we get this far, eh?
We keep going over the same ground again
Go back to the beginning again
If we keep wasting time
Love worth die in the end
All this shit is making a stand
'Cause we keep going over the same ground again.
