Scratch away the words, they never made sense
anyway.
It's been a while since the shit hit the fan,
But I'm not gonna stand around and wait.
I'm just pissed, always getting mad.
(It's always on my mind)
I wanna give it all to you... nothing, nothing at all.
Goodbye to you, won't see you anymore.
There's no way out, and there is no cure.
Goodbye to you, won't see your face again,
It probably feels like your world will end.
I don't know when it will stop, don't know where it began.
Try to do everything right by you
But it's something that will never end.
It's not funny anymore, the situation.
I'm gonna give it all to you... nothing, nothing at all.
Didn't mean much anyway, there's nothing I can say,
So I'm gonna give it back to you... nothing, nothing at all.
Say goodbye for the last time.
