You're sad, I am lucky,
I am noone to say so,
I am noone to leave it,
Believe it, I'm off,
You can reach me,
But you don't know,
And I tell you,
That you haven't,
This is pigswill,
And you know it,
I'm as guilty as sin,
You win I'm wrong,
That's cowardice and not fun,
It's knock and run,
But I don't think I know what you need,
I delete them as precaution,
You're a nutcase and I'm sorry,
And I worry more than ever,
That the nutcase is me,
Perfection is a theory,
Still I wont let you near me,
It's so easy just to kill this,
It's an illness I swear,
Do I know you from the bar,
Do your friends know where you are,
Have you come from fancy dress,
Are you always such a mess,
Are the glasses even yours,
They're about to shut the doors,
Come with me I'll see you out,
Come with me I'll see you out of here.
