Well I don't really have a window,
But there's a hole in my rafters,
And I have to get up on tiptoes,
If I want to hear laughter,
But I really don't mind,
Really it is pretty fun,
Reaching up for extra height,
And it's a surprise,
Because it could be anyone,
Anyone to lift the light,
Or lift the spirits here,
Don't do it,
Don't make a problem,
Get down,
Go for it,
Get the bus,
Step out,
I don't know but it is time I found out,
And time that I knew,
Well I don't really have a clue now,
Am I on my own in this building,
I wish you'd take your cue now,
Wish you wouldn't let me keep hiding,
Seriously think of saving you an apricot,
Saving you a nectarine,
What you want to drink,
I don't want to drink tonight,
I want you to lift the light,
Or lift the spirits here,
Don't do it,
Don't make a problem,
Get down,
Go for it,
This is the bus,
Step out,
I don't know but it is time I found out,
And time that I knew,
So what am I going to do now.
