When the dry ice thins out,
And we've sweated our skins out,
And you only give yourself a break,
To take the damn bins out,
And you can't keep running with your head down,
Well don't you think it's funny that you're still out,
Go ahead oh come on oh this is it shout,
I can see you get the shakes,
I can see you shaking now,
So you disappear,
And I just wait here,
You say you'll only be a minute,
Or do I not hear you properly,
I've done a lap and a lap and another lap,
And I've just gone when I've seen this other chap,
I bowl back to yours and burst through your door,
And you tell me that I've got it all,
Can't you see we get the shakes,
Can't you see me shaking now,
Can't we go to bed now,
Can't we get our heads down,
Try and get some sense out of it,
Try and shut my eyes for five minutes,
Can't you see we get the shakes,
Can't you see me shaking now.
