Green dreams they fill my mind,
Green dreams my favorite kind,
Green dreams a mile high
If you come down, then have another green dream
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile high,
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile high,
This crowd never back down,
My clown you can not drown,
Come pie, I will not die
Tell â€™em I coming, tell â€™em Iâ€™m prime Tell em all about rat top shop with a man inside, he really ainâ€™t fine, Keep alotta of my thumb, keep alotta water to the pot a vine,
We are not over the cause, we are not over the fight,
we are not over the populous,
We will continue to fly, fuck em for dicking my green dreams, fuck em for giving my high, Spin up another and tell the reason I gave em my weed is a lifeflood
I am in love with the herb burning up only the nice bud, Stay up in the quadroon where dogs run off there leashes,
So I guess you can call this my thesis
Smoking on the same strings probably as Jesus, Cause the herbs from the earth are how I pledge my allegiance,
Feel my green dreams as this they all say Fuck real life bet you roam every minute
So it keeps changing this thing we call life
So I keep smoking just to get high or just to get by,
Green dreams they fill my mind,

Green dreams my favorite kind,
Green dreams a mile high
If you come down, then have another green dream
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile High
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile high,
Getting chilly with this filling, counting my ends,
I got enemies and foes but I got plenty more friends,
When they say your time is up for me, it really begins,
I got 99 problems so im dealing with 10,
You say never say never so I never give up,
When my glass is half empty I say fill up my cup,
To the tip tip top Iâ€™m running over with love,
Im only burning high octane premium buzz,
You Know I got the goods you know I float high,
You know I fucked the bomb every day and every night,
You know I like the smell,
You know it never fail,
Either put your clothes in the air and fuck the hell
Ya you know the deal, this lonely life is chill,
Always going out like trucks we climbing the hills
Smoking on the green tree,
Smoking on the fruity,
Packing up the poopy never slack and I got pretty,
Green dreams they fill my mind,
Green dreams my favorite kind,
Green dreams a mile high
If you come down, then have another green dream
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile High
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile high,
Green dreams they fill my mind,
Green dreams my favorite kind,

Green dreams a mile high
If you come down, then have another green dream
Green dreams they fill my mind,
Green dreams my favorite kind,
Green dreams a mile high
If you come down, then have another green dream
Green dreams they fill my mind,
Green dreams my favorite kind,
Green dreams a mile high
If you come down, then have another green dream
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile high
Things dont stay the same, (in my mind look inside) Everythingâ€™s bound to change, (put me high now
we fly)
Like clouds run through the sky, (Itâ€™s you and I till
we die)
We stay a mile high
