Magic mushrooms xtacy
Cannibus, ludes, and GHB
Uppers downers and THC
Blues and vics and acid on sheets

Hey yo Loc, what's up Johnny Richter?
I still sport the same frame, I just changed the big picture
Now I'ma sit your ass down right in the front row
To let you know how we smoke at a Kottonmouth Kings
Show

You know we do it, did it, doin' it again
I need at least ten tokes for my day to begin A big sack of the chronic, 'cause you know I'm always on it Steady smokin' out the glass, got the plastic go and pawn it

And get a refund check, I bet you sell your mamma's drawls
You keep bouncin' like my balls off the walls just because
You want a piece of what I got plus a sack of my pot Think you're really gonna get it, thought wrong, I think not

We fucked up at Four Twenty in the old rotation Rolled up on the homies, like what you blazin'
They said some purple kush that they got from Riverside
But I knew they was fakin', the shit barely got me high

Everything looks the same but everything feels so
differently
And I don't know if it's just all in my head or if I'm losin
my sanity
My smokin', my drinkin' is foggin' my thinkin'
That's what they all keep tellin' me
And faces-n-places keep changin' erasin'
And everything feels so strange to me

Now we out on the road, different city every night
Different ho's every night, different flows every night
We stay drunk off Bud Light so fuck the Malt Liquor
We drink beer by the can, cup, bottle, or pitcher

You'll see us onstage faded straight buzzed as fuck You'll hear us bumpin' down your block when we're in our trucks
da doom doom doom doom that's what's up Damn I blew another woofer man that's just my luck

Well that's your luck, I hope mine's better then that
As I tilt down my hat, and twist off my beer cap Yeah, Loc's kinda crazy doin' 80 in the dirt
With his bike in the back and a beer in his lap

I don't feel the hurt, when it's time I go bizzerk Third gear buckled, shit didn't even hurt Well, you know I seen the footage, and the film don't lie Knocked the wind out his chest and straight blackened his eye

Everything looks the same but everything feels so
differently
And I don't know if it's just all in my head or if I'm losin
my sanity
My smokin', my drinkin' is foggin' my thinkin'
That's what they all keep tellin' me
And faces-n-places keep changin' erasin'
And everything feels so strange to me

Strange, strange, strange, dead strange

I'm feelin' so strange with the addition of pills Poppin' little tiny blue things with no time to kill Eat the mid-sized whites, they'll keep you rollin'? till the mornin?
Take one with a chick, you know that night you might be bonin?

D-Loc, whoa
I'm feelin kind of dazed D and I'm out of control
Ya know the big ol fatties are the Tylenol 3's
And the orange ones I got come straight from overseas

You know how I do it, wakin' up everyday Drinkin' beers in my bed, waitin' for a lady to play
And I love being on one, two, three, or four Looped, staring at the ceiling with my back on the floor

Five, six, I rolled out with my dick

I called this bitch, she was a lil' ass trick Now we not saying it's right, but strange is how we're livin'
Just goin' through life having fun with what we're given

Everything looks the same but everything feels so
differently
And I don't know if it's just all in my head or if I'm losin
my sanity
My smokin', my drinkin' is foggin' my thinkin'
That's what they all keep tellin' me
And faces-n-places keep changin' erasin'
And everything feels so strange to me

Everything looks the same but everything feels so
differently
And I don't know if it's just all in my head or if I'm losin
my sanity
My smokin', my drinkin' is foggin' my thinkin'
That's what they all keep tellin' me
And faces-n-places keep changin' erasin'
And everything feels so strange to me
