(chorus)

Now I dont where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I went from havin a little, To havin a lot
I came from the bottom; now, I'm standing on top

(Johny Richter)

Somtimes I lay awake at night and tryin to figure It out
Is my life going north, or is it heading south
I'm walking a fence between wrong and right
Tryin to keep a level head and keep my goals in Sight
Its hard as hell in this world today
Friends I've known for many years started acting Strange
Things I cared about before, seemed to fade away
And all I'm left is the question "is this gonna Change?"

When is this train gonna get back on track
When am I even gonna care about that Why am I the one, whose always dealt the bad cards
Took the easy road so long, and now my lifes hard

Still I try to make it work out for the best
And I know i've gotta clean up all this mess
If i knew when i started, where this all would end
I think I'd prolly do it all over again

(chorus)

Now I dont where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I went from havin a little, To havin a lot
I came from the bottom; now, I'm standing on top

Now I don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I've seen some people cry cause loved one's die
I've looked in people's eyes and told some lies(where,
where, where will it go, where will it go from here?)Repeat 2X

(D-Loc)

Skies are blue and the trees are grand

Going to the place where life froze in between The beautiful hills mountains and streams
The Mans country with my women living free

Stay on my path follow my road
Do all the right things to achieve my goals
Perusing my dream in life I lead
Become who I want when I want anytime I please
I no where I'm going
If I keep it on track
Just stay on my line only time will tell
I pray to the one over looking my trail

(chorus)

Now I don't know where I'm going
But I know where I've been
I've seen some people cry cause loved one's die
I've looked in people's eyes and told some lies(where,
where, where will it go, where will it go from here?)Repeat 2X

[Daddy X]

I've been criticized
For speaking my mind
Been baptized in lies
Given bad advice
Here's a word to the wise
Never compromise
Watch your back
As you watch your ends multiply
Look a man in his eyes
And never ever say die
Keep your eye on the prize
And you'll stay on the rise
I'm a king world wide
And I'm going to stay on the ground
I've been behind the glass but I always rebound
Outlet quick live life in the fast lane
Inbound Outbound my stride don't change
Stay true to myself cause I created this game
I got the whole world jumpin like the house of pain (jump)

[Chorus x2]

Where are we going and (where it end) [x11]
