To start off to focus on your look
And that it doesn't seem to work
Regardless of what is understood
I said the point to this song is the hook

And that i can provide
Our sincerity's a lie,
Don't say that this is never going to happen
Cause i believe in everything that has a reason
When you don't want to talk
Something is wrong tonight
Don't say that this is never going to happen
Cause i believe in everything that has a reason
When you don't want to talk
I know it's off tonight

For now, we have forgot the rest
We have the job without the check
It's not like there's more to expect
When your records are in the red

And that i can provide
Our sincerity's a lie,
Don't say that this is never going to happen
Cause i believe in everything that has a reason
When you don't want to talk
Something is wrong tonight
Don't say that this is never going to happen
Cause i believe in everything that has a reason
When you don't want to talk
I know it's off tonight

And if you say it's through,
I guess i saw it coming
But still i need the truth,
So please except my asking for it
Just to get it out of my heart
Just to get it out of my heart
