I've been thinking about you today,
And I know, you're not ok,
You crossed the line, you've gone too far,
Here comes my warning, it's your time to stop.

Looking like a living dead,
Hangin' out with decadent people,
You can't even say your name,
Degenerating, you're digging your own grave,
I don't want to watch you die.

Not so long ago you used to be all right,
Now you're self destructive and wasted all the time,
You're so fucked up, I can see it in your face,
All this fuckin' abuse gonna be your end.
