"Kill The Rich"

You're working your ass off, you're trying to survive You're using all of your skills but it's not enough to pay your bills
That makes you so worried and you can't sleep at night
And must wake up 5 in the morning to give your sweat and sell out your life

Your share is not right
You have nothing left, you have no life
You can't have your slice 'Cause someone is eating the whole pie

(Every time I see them driving their expensive cars or when I'm passing by their fancy houses and realize that I'm contributing For their for their prosperity, I get so pissed off... I'm not looking for luxury, But I deserve something better. I can't take this anymore
And I have a plan, something to do with revolt and gasoline)

Kill the rich, you're just a victim in this world of greed Kill the rich, you're just cheap labour and your blood they leech Kill the rich, they give you dreams but never let you succeed
Kill the rich, kill the rich if you want to be free.
