"Lay It On Me"

Well, they say your kiss is like forbidden fruit,
One taste of your sweet strawberry lips,
And I'll be hooked on you, they Say one day just like a dog, You'll own me I say lay it on me I'm six foot four and tough as a man can be,
I ain't scared of much, I'll buck right up, there's a fightin' side of me, They say I'll turn to putty and you'll mold me, well lay it on me,

(Chorus)

You might be more than I can stand, after all honey, I'm just one man, I might wind up sad, beat down and lonely, but I'm watching the way them jeans low ride, your belly button ring and big blue eyes,
And I can hardly wait for you to hold me,
Come on and lay it on me, well,
That "born to break hearts" tattoo don't faze me, So, stroll your sweet self over here, and Bring me to my knees, and we'll see who comes out on top, Now won't we, lay it on me, you might be more than I can stand,
After all honey, I'm just one man, I might wind up sad, Beat down and lonely, but I'm watching the way them jeans low ride,
Your belly button ring and big blue eyes, and I can hardly wait for you to hold me, Come on and lay it on me, well, lay down The lawor lay it all on the line, girl I don't care as long as you lay your body next to mine,
And if your afraid of falling, Darlin' don't be come on and lay it on me, I say lay it on me, come on lay it on me
