"The Zephirus Circus"

"There's a prefabbed usurper in the big top, the state's an asylum for the Demented and damned. Swing to and fro until the twine slips into a knot while The Tamer of Prophets is devoured."
Is it for entertainment or have we simply been amused?
Or are we all Abused?
"Ringleader, house speaker, witness the cabinet squeeze millions of Citizens into a box.
"A puppet is a puppet," so hinted the serpent,
"Regardless of which fist is Forced straight up it's ass." And we've all already paid admission through our taxes.
"Stop breathing, stop eating, stop breeding, if you really want to save the World." There is nothing more rare in the world than consistent men, and Nothing so plentiful as lies.
