Tell you nothing
Odds are swimming
Open to your faith
Open to your faith
(chorus)
Times we fold for mercy's sake
And nothing is left for you to take
Lives are cold from learning late
And no one gains from this mistake
a new life
Falsify this
I can break you
Never give you back
Never give you back
(chorus)
Times we fold for mercy's sake
And nothing is left for you to take
Lives are cold from learning late
And no one gains from this mistake
a new life
(bridge)
I can't see over it
I can't look over it
I will live through sound
I have dreamed over it
I have drown over it
I will do no more
Do no more
(chorus)
Times we fold for mercy's sake
And nothing is left for you to take
Lives are cold from learning late
And no one gains from this mistake
