(Verse)

Another night of showing my charm again and I wait for you

To drop your guard and let me in so I can stop making myself your fool

(And I hope your)

(Chorus)

Very entertained by this charade
And I'm not happy without
My costume for this masquerade
And I'm not happy without

(Verse)

Just pick me up so you can drop me down again
Along with all the smooth things that I should have said to you

(And I hope your)

(Chorus)

Very entertained by this charade
And I'm not happy without
My costume for this masquerade
And I'm not happy without

(Bridge)

Just tell me why you can not get it
I'm peeling off my skin, I'm naked
Do you feel it inside you, Still I can't find you Just decide

Drop it down or pick it up

(And I hope your)

(Chorus)

Very entertained by this charade
And I'm not happy without
My costume for this masquerade
And I'm not happy without
