(chorus)

all im hearing on the radio same thing
and all im seeing in the videos
same thing
same old song far from original gotta maintain we'd just like a breath of fresh air so here we blow you feel a cool breeze, prepare for the coming of the new breed, true g's more than just irregular little different than ordinary whatever you want i got styles and you know they vary sick of hearing the same thing on the radio, sick of seeing the same scene in the video, everybody wanna be like somebody or look like somebody you just need to be yourself (i'ma tell ya) half these niggas im payin they been bitin (bitin) they just sit back watch and plot'cha and try to bite'cha (bite'cha)

they keep eatin my shit up so i guess they like it (like it) niggas try to hang wit Bone so you hear the same songs (the same songs... the same song...)

(chorus)

here we blow, here we blow, see this is dedicated to the ones that run they rhyme see time after time after time after time (hey!) this is dedicated to the ones that run they rhyme say time after time after time after time (hey!) you try a little bit of dis you wont want none of that you really really wanna hit? nigga dis where its at they feel it anyway i bring it can sing it or rap they try to follow my footsteps but get lost in my tracks one and only, thuggish ruggish, Bone dogs just wanna see us but they clones you dont really wanna see me nigga, go on man, when i turn on the radio today, you know what im sayin, its like, its like man, im hearin the same thing over and over again, you know what im sayin? constantly being drilled with the same style, with the same, with the same beat, with the same everything, you know? its like a lot of things done changed about the music cause the music game aint original no mo'. everybody's tryin to ride the bandwagon, everybody's trying to do what this person's doing, you know what im saying, aint nobody trying to take the time to be creative and go about it the hard way and really earn a hit. instead, everybody just wanna jump on the bandwagon on whats selling, or you know what im sayin? "this whats selling right now at the time, this what kinda song im gon' make". you know what im sayin, with me, its totally different man, whatever it, whatever's going on out in the music business right now or on the radio, whatever's going on, or whatever style is poppin, thats what i try to stay away from. i try to be, i try to be a innovator and a creator, i try to lead, i try to be a leader, and i try to do my own thing, you know im not tryin to nobody, cause i believe i got enough skill and enough style to hold my own, with anything...
