[Hook]

Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side
Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side

How many times I gotta tell em
Don't sleep with the leather
And still I be better than I
So I come with the leather, survive
True artists they never can die
I'm looking than ... but selling this crazy checks
And I got the clip
Who in the hell say krayzie ain't nothing
Better go ask em
Niggas in the hood, niggas in the hood know me
I'm the lyrical criminal murder the checker's a homicide
Everybody check yeah I'ma rise
I say ... cause down to die
The game, the way you over this
The clones is getting me wrong I guess
With time, nigga how strong I get
Whenever 20 years ain't born out yeah
With a nigga flow, got em on the flow
Lonely ass like your popo, and that's why I'm solo, dolo
I hit a nigga... this rap game, I'm a ruler
When royalty is in the presence style
We represent the deliberate of the crime
Cut to the microphone, destined to shine since I was born
Defines the mind of a rider storm

Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side
Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute

I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side

They told me they wanna hear music,
They really ain't trippin on none of my dramas maine
Besides it's profit to make, and dollars to rake
And I like ben franks, cause I love my music
My creative juices run like fluid
Kinda like nike shoes I just do it
Flow so fluid, don't even take effort to do it
My lesson to students, never out shine the master
Wanna get it till the morning slow mo
Hit them in they mind, get me on the grind
No need a sponsor, I'ma present myself obama
My illness is contagious, I'm infecting them young like rabies
I'm an epidemic, I'm outrageous
Keep on flippin niggas, I got what you wanna do

[Hook]

Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side
Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side

Spitting the race, I'm maintaining my lead
Call me speedy gonzales, I come with the speed
My beast in minds, barely came to do damage
Man it's still gonna, get a strip attendant
So think about it... get me no sin

[Hook]

Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side
Somebody tell me please if all I speak is absolute
I put so many finally shine I think they copy me
On another level, so I take them to the other side
