He did you wrong
He did you wrong
He did you wrong
He did you wrong

Hey girlfriend, if somebody told your boyfriend
If they told him, what me and you be doin'
Somebody gonna be in trouble

[Incomprehensible] we be kickin' it like husband and wife
You see that's the reason you sleepy sayin', "Not tonight"
Meet me at the corner store, ain't nobody gotta know
Soon as you pull up, we pull out and roll

Follow me home
Let's get away and be alone, unplug my phone
You know the song, baby
All around the world, it's the same song, the same song

Turn off the light, we be smokin' bud in the dark
Every time I hit the weed
I can see your beauty reflectin' when it spark

Girl, I feel it the reeder and the vibe is perfect
And don't feel worthless
'Cause if your man was actin' right, he'd be worth it

Baby, he don't deserve this
So don't be actin' nervous and besides, he ain't here
It's closed curtains, gettin' it on shit

You know it's something about
When you be sneakin' for some reason
The lovin' feel much better
When you're creepin', don't you get too sleepy

You know you gotta go
Your man is back at home and probably waitin' at the door

So, I get with you tomorrow, baby, just page me, hit me up
And when I jump outta work, come on over and give me some

Hey girlfriend, if somebody told your boyfriend
If they told him, what me and you be doin'
Somebody gonna be in trouble

All I needed was a thug in my life
Somebody that'll treat me right
Slap it from the back and keep it wet all night

A rider like you that's ghetto-life
Answer to my dreams knew that you was him on sight
The way your shit was tight, ain't no happy home

Talkin' to them chickens on the cell phone
Took your shit too long, now two can play the game
I'm feelin' you and ain't no shame
And when I'm in your arms, I feel no pain

Can't hit the spot like you, cop a knot like you Flip it over quick and knock it out the box like you
Keep it locked like you, it's only you on my mind
And when I'm rollin' in my Benz knowin' you on your grind

You make my heat melt and I don't want no one else
If I can't have you, I'd rather touch myself
Just give the word, boo, I'm leavin' all this shit for you
That thug passion got me sprung, so whatcho gon' do?

Hey girlfriend, if somebody told your boyfriend
If they told him, what me and you be doin'
Somebody gonna be in trouble

Somebody gonna be in trouble
In trouble, in trouble
'Cause if anybody find out
And you know that, yes, you know that

Somebody gonna be in trouble
In trouble, in trouble
'Cause if anybody find out
And you know that, yes, you know that

Hey girlfriend, if someone told your boyfriend
