Forever torn apart, forever gone
Forever things will come back to the start
Forever honesty, forever gone
Forever trust to me, there can't be none

Though you don't comply at all
There's a way out of this hole
As the shadow breaks the crust
Your soul is mine forever

Forever senseless tears, forever lies
Forever shameless fear, you won't pass by Forever cannot win, forever try
Forever live in sin under this sky

Though you don't comply at all
There's a way out of this hole
As the shadow breaks the crust
Your soul is mine forever

As the shadow breaks the crust
Your soul is mine forever
As the shadow breaks the crust
Your soul is mine forever
