Slave machinery existence once devoured never to escape
Despotic hierarchy ruled with terror eternity enslaved
And the gearwheels of enslavement keep on turning
every day
Extinguish hopes the moment they first walk through the gates
Sounds of penetration screaming through the factory Echoes of the slave machinery

Slave machinery keeps feeding on controlled manipulated lives
Fabric of depression for a future now history has died
Just a functional endurance like a puppet on a string Never realizing they have taken everything Ultra steel construction to dictate your destiny
Foundation for the slave machinery, slave machinery

All you've never meant to be
All you've never meant to see
All those demons in your sleep
Sacrificed grace for deceit

All you've never meant to be
All you've never meant to see
All those demons in your sleep
Sacrificed grace for deceit

And the gearwheels of enslavement keep on turning
every day
Extinguish hopes the moment they first walk through
the gates
Ultra steel construction to dictate your destiny
Echoes of the slave machinery, slave machinery
