My inner eye sees many spheres
A cruel dimension where time and space distort beyond control
A ride to another center of the Universe
My thoughts come undone make me see the dark stains on my soul

A darkness as cold as ice surrounds me in this place
I probe a veiled phobia, all my own
Creatures crawl out from my weirdest, wildest dreams
They are flesh, not fantasy, they drag me inside the...

Terror zone

Demons, ghouls, and fiends that once I could ignore
Shred the skin and flesh from my bones
Planets form and die, the cosmos torment me
Unnatural, humongous, neverending...

Terror zone

Now I know what dwells within me
Blood - a river of sweat and tears
Flesh - a land God left behind
Soul - a sky of cloudy fears

Deception and disguise dissolve before my inner eyes

My heart turns to stone
God, I'm all alone
Oh, no
All alone

Terror zone
