Haven't you seen me
I've stood right in front
And haven't you heard me
I've sung a song out loud
Now haven't you felt me
I've touched your face
Still I do it all again 'cause I'm bound

Chorus:

I've done it all before
I've sung this line before
But still I won't stop trying
I've heard it all before
Seen it all before
But still I won't stop hiding

Oh oh, oh oh, oh ohâ€¦

Well haven't you missed me
I've been long gone
Why didn't you call me
There must have been a phone out there
Did you really not miss me
I sure missed you
Still I do it all again 'cause I'm bound

Chorus

I've heard your lies like before
We've made mistakes like before
But still we act like there's nothing wrong, no no
I've seen it all like before
Heard it all just before
But still I'm asking, still I'm asking you for more

Chorus

No more, no no more, no more, heyâ€¦
