Sunday, getting up late, hearing Bob sing
Everything's gonna be alright
This is all that I need in my life

When you hold me, there's no tomorrow
Whatever the day drings I'll follow you home
This is all that I need in my life

Let it be everlasting
It'll only get better for both of us
Let this be never passing
Love me like
This is the last
Day of our life

Baby, when we grow older, just be there
When I need a shoulder to cry on
This is all that I need in my life

Let it be everlasting
It'll only get better for both of us
Let this be never passing
Love me like
This is the last
Day of our life

Let it be everlasting
It'll only get better for both of us
Let this be never passing
Love me like
This is the last
It might be the last
It could be the last
Day of our life
