So pretty, looking up with your face
So pretty, dreaming your dreams
So pretty, knowing who I am So pretty, feeling what you feel

How could you know that my head is full of fantasies, yeah
How could you know that my head is full of you

Not anymore, no, not anymore, no, not anymore, no,
not anymore

So pretty, talking all the time
So pretty, being in my life
So pretty, knowing who we are So pretty, feeling what I feel

How could you know that my head is full of fantasies,
yeah

Not anymore, no, not anymore, no, not anymore, no,
not anymore

You have tried to live my life
You have tried to crawl yourself up inside of me
I cried, I yelled at you, I spit at you (?)

But now I'm feeling butterflies And now I'm feeling new

Not anymore, no, not anymore, no, not anymore, no,
not anymore
Not anymore, no, not anymore, no, not anymore, no,
not anymore
