I wish I could sit down and read
All off the beautiful stories I need
I'd know all off the secrets they tell
And all off the fantasies I have as well

I'd go through every page
And I'd read every word

But no matter how hard I try
Keep losing track of time
See how the days fly by
Even tough everything, everything's fine
I wish I just wish I could find
Some peace of mind

I wish I could look at the sky
And think about nothing but wondering why
The stars don't fall down on my head
Why the moon is so pretty and why we never met

I'd finally be speechless
And lay down my head

But no matter how hard I try
Keep losing track of time
See how the days fly by
Even tough everything, everything's fine
I wish I just wish I could find
Some peace of mind

No I won't stop trying
I guess I'm scared off what I'll be finding
'cause it won't be like me at all

No matter how hard I try
Keep losing track of time
See how the days fly by
Even tough everything, everything's fine
I wish I just wish I could find
Some peace of mind
