Rearrange, it's too late
Just go on
I can't sleep, we wake up
And nothing's wrong no more

Can't make up my mind
What do I want today, said today
Maybe I'll wake up
Cause this is not who I am

But please understand
How it's like to be there
Where everything's going the way it should be

Then again, doesn't end
I'll go home
I can't sleep, I look up
And nothing's wrong no more

Can't make up my mind
What do I want today, said today
Maybe I'll wake up
Cause this is not who I am

But please understand
How it's like to be there
Where everything's going the way it should be

But don't you ask me
I won't answer anything at all

But please understand
How it's like to be there
Where everything's going the way it should be
