"Why Falling"

I can see it's going down it's going down again
Your face it is destroyed by mess that you bought

You didn't tell me that you wanted to be like this, I've never noticed
That guys are drawing on you when they are drunk, yeah, you've never told me

Why are you falling deeper and deeper in a hole, no
Why are you falling deeper and deeper, deeper in a hole

Your hands are holding mine but someone's kicking them
My mouth is telling you what you shouldn't do

You didn't tell me that you wanted to be like this, I never noticed
That guys are drawing on you when they are drunk, you never told me

Why are you falling deeper and deeper in a hole, no
Why are you falling deeper and deeper, deeper in a
hole

You're gone with the wind, you're gone with the wind, you are
You're gone with the wind, you're gone with the wind,
you are

never noticed
never told me

Why are you falling deeper and deeper in a hole, no
Why are you falling deeper and deeper, deeper in a hole
Deeper in a hole, deeper in a hole
