The world goin' by my window
Doesn't mean nothin' to me
Why do I feel the way I do?
Why am I still so lost in you? I wonder

Watching you sleep each mornin'
Brushing the hair from your eyes
Why do we give ourselves away
'Till only emptiness remains?

Was there a reason you came and changed my life?
'Cause it won't change back, I'm tryin' to forget
But I can't act as if we never met, ooh

The world goin' by my window
Doesn't mean nothin' to me
Why do I feel the way I do?
Darlin', I'm still so lost in you

Was there a reason you came and changed my life?
'Cause it won't change back, I'm tryin' to forget
But I can't act as if we never met, ooh, no, no, no, no, no
