"United In Deception"

In the beginning of centuries
Hatred of the nations collided
And the killing for Gods unleashed.

In a world abused and raped
Temples of waste were raised
Demented leaders worshipped.

Conflicts, demands, tyranny.

Within the procedure of existence
Cowardly men surrender and bow
Relying on the lies about purification

Saviours and prophecies all created.

Conflicts, demands, new God.

Endurance of the earth so fragile
Massacre and wars across the globe
Crosses burnt, yet worshipped
Mankind united in deception.

In the beginning of centuries
Hatred of the nations collided.
