Wrath of primeval madness
Forged from vicious roots
Timeless existence plagued soul
I vindicate the renegade ones.

Full moon serpent spirit
Emerging in days of vindication
Ravager fatherless inexorable
I'll nature aberration of creation.

Primitive derangement
Forged from self holocaust
Timeless vicious hatred

By nihilistic fire I was burnt.

Specters of primitive summoning
Forged from self damnation.
Straight vicious wrath,
Straight vicious wrath.

My twisted image mirrored in red
Break the reflections into shards
Within the serpent's gaze
I see the coming of a painful dawn.
