I'm thy blood abominated and spilled by the works of darkness and hatred I'm abyssic flames infernal fire of defamation which burns and brands the sacred scriptures wielder of the oppressive sword of revenge blood of sacrificed showers from my blade marching over slaughtered preys I feast ascending storms of scourge I ride spewing the rites of ritual sacrifice I'm the one baptized in flames

Ceremonial death thru merciless desecration black blood unleash my heart of stone eyes of horror are always around me beholding the preys of deception die domination for the tyrant revenge desolation of holiness summon my name from within the beast's brood I came raised to murder the holy one wicked insane with malevolent mission hatred inherit my light became black reciting evoking pouring of blood by my hands infesting the circle I summon the fire - god murder of divine grace flesh desecrated violation of sacred code pestilent feast ravager of holy decay I shall stand the painful sorrow of living triumph of death hatred inherit pestilence of peace lord of infamous arts I shall stand

son of the abyssic gods spawned in battle to reign
