

Krispies "Smile"

Visit "Smile" on MotoLyrics.com

Frozen plants they seem to melt tonight
And start to bloom like never before
One frozen lake is crowded and filled with life
Unexpected 'n' usual
It could be much worse now
There you smiled
Everything stopped and I fell through
Close my eyes, I'm blue
When you smile
There isn't much I can do

Would you smile soon
It seems that telephone is my desire
Stare and hold it like never before
There's a message from you underlined
You'd much rather be here right now
Everything's upside down
