So far from the person I used to be
A victim of your mentality
I will dust myself off dissed by your views
I play my own game there are no rules
Had me believin I exist because of you
Being gifted was nothing new
Everytime I saw the light you'd pull me back down
Twistin all my thoughtgs till I'm wrong
You can't keep me any longer
Hangin' round till I succeed
After waking from this nightmare
Found the strength I need to leave

I gotta get away
I can't do a damned thing without you baby
It's drivin' me insane
The way it's always gotta be about you baby
You make me wanna crash and burn
Does it make you feel good to see me fallin'
Oh, so hard that I'd do anything to just feel better
That I'd do anything to just feel better

All of the pieces that you broke inside of me
You waste no vision of sympathy
Just puttin' me down saying that you love me
But when I turned around you were acting ugly
So I got tougher and got stronger and got better
And realized you're not the only one who cared for me
Same song playing in the background
But never was a change cause I'm gone
Don't keep sayin' that you made me
Yeah I knos you're threatened by my dreams
But life is happening without you
I know what's hidden up your sleeve

I gotta get away
I can't do a damned thing without you baby
It's drivin' me insane
The way it's always gotta be about you baby
You make me wanna crash and burn
Does it make you feel good to see me fallin'
Oh, so hard that I'd do anything to just feel better

I gotta get away
I can't do a damned thing without you baby
It's drivin' me insane
The way it's always gotta be about you baby
You make me wanna crash and burn
Does it make you feel good to see me fallin'
Oh, so hard that I'd do anything to just feel better
That I'd do anything to just feel better

Thank you for saying that I'll be nothing if I leave
And thank you for breaking me to keep on fucking with my dreams
Yeah you're good when it's all wrong
But then just tell me what is right for me

Yeah I gotta get away
I can't do a damned thing without you baby
It's drivin' me insane
The way it's always gotta be about you baby
You make me wanna crash and burn
Does it make you feel good to see me fallin'
Oh, so hard that I'd do anything to just feel better
I gotta get away
I can't do a damned thing without you baby
It's drivin' me insane
The way it's always gotta be about you baby
You make me wanna crash and burn
Does it make you feel good to see me fallin'
Oh, so hard that I'd do anything
Yeah You make me wanna crash and burn
YOu make me so crazy
That I'd do anything
That I'd do anything to just feel better
