Call it over, call it gone, call it nothing, see what u've gone and done

call it stupid, call it wrong call it reckless, see what we've gone and done

who am i to break this young girls heart? how the mighty rising far!

i will not be beaten you have yet to see me shinning
shinning i wont take this lying down.

i will not be beaten you have yet to see me shinning
shinning i wont take this lying down.

call me sunday, call me soon, call me heartless call me to room, call me lonely call me lame, call me blind and foolish just to spare you from the blame.

Who am i to break this young girls hear? how the
mighty rising far!

shinning i wont take this lying down.

i will not be beaten you have yet to see me shinning
shinning i wont take this lying down.

i will not be beaten you have yet to see me shinning
shinning i wont take this lying down.
