Sometimes living here takes more than a lot
Sometimes more than I've got
Oh, that's when I think about that beautiful day
That day when everything becomes clear
When there's nothing to fear
Oh, when I'm out of here

A beautiful day for sure
When these troubles are gone
A beautiful day for sure
Oh, yeah
I live while I'm waiting for
This glorious hour
It will be a beautiful day for sure

Sometimes I see enemies wherever I look
I try to close the book
But there they are on the cover
Smiling at me
When every road is a dead end road
When game over's my mode
I know one day I will loose the load

Now there ain't no sunshine outside my door
Now there ain't no sunshine
Now there ain't no sunshine outside my door
