Visit "Heading Home" on MotoLyrics.com

These roads are somewhat familiar
They brought me all this way
I've seen all there is to C now
I'm walking back to A

And you ask me why
I am turning from my journey

I am heading home
I won't run no more
I remember now what I'm living for
I am heading home
'Cause I've found what I've been looking for
Is what is left behind

Remind me once more
I'm longing
Let me see that vision again
None of the places I've been
Gave me that peace within

So don't ask me why
I am turning from my journey

I'm done my search is over
Step by step more sober
