(K. Hoffmann)

Life flows

My only heart be strong

My only heart be strong

And beauty fades

A lonely life to claim

My only life to have

And all decisions that I've made

And all decisions yet to come

I declare to you

And I declare my sadness gone

Future plans

You break my heart again

And only time can place

Then all at once

You make my soul ascend

And beauty shows her face

So at the ending of this day

And all the endings yet to come

I declare to you

And I declare my sadness gone
