(Hoffmann, Cunning)

A searchlight
On the night sky
When I find you
I see a sign of life
Shine, shine
Throw your mysteries aside

Lay down your light
And we'll go dancing through the night
You got to lay down your light
You're beautiful, beautiful
Come into the night

You're a soft light
In the distance
And when you come to me
The most beautiful thing that I ever did see
And I, no longer terrified
I'll give you all I can't hide

Lay down your light
And I'll go dance into your night
You got to lay down your light
You're beautiful, beautiful
You know you got to lay down your light
And we'll go dancing through the night
You got to lay down your light
You're beautiful, beautiful, beautiful

All is new tonight
Only you can hide

Lay down your light
