Pour tea and death by mosquito
And vitamins v
Home in the contrasting squalor
A mouth full of vodka
This lukewarm catastrophe
Is a recipe for rebirth
Or so i overheard
Plaid on the afghani carpet
The tops overflowed
I'm still staring through the fishtank
My fist full of valium
This lukewarm catastrophe
Is a recipe for rebirth
Or so i overheard
You're gonna want to keep in touch with your silence
Remember shy personal hell
I won't waste your time with lies
And there's not much truth to tell
I won't go under in this state
I'm as ugly as i look
So dinner's a vivid hangover
And a long-ass drive
This lukewarm catastrophe
Is a recipe for rebirth
Or so i overheard
You're gonna want to keep in touch with your silence
Remember shy personal hell
I won't waste your mind with lies
And there's not much truth to tell
You're gonna want to ride back here with me
I've got the coolest view
And all vitamins v
I can't seem to lie to you
I can't seem to lie to you
