Silent bleed through darkness wakes up broken girl whose nightmare takes her into the arms of a madman looking for the fix that his mommy didn't give to him when he was a boy, was ignored and explored by the man next door, forced to dream in a living nightmare.

in the arms of a madman there's no right or wrong to decide just the cause and effect of life, used and abused like a stab in the heart no love no love no love hush now, pretty sleeping baby. daddy's come to be your saviour

dream in a living nightmare.

somebody help me

dream in a living nightmare.
