When I think of all the things that you meant to me
It doesn't seem right to say goodbye Something young is growing wings, some feeling you sent to me
And it will never, never never say die
And it will never, never never say die
chorus:
So don't say our love almost was Despite how discouraged you may get You just keep a little faith because It might have only been a not yet, y'know
It might have only been a not yet.
We may have previous little chance to pursue our dreams
But still we carry them along

Life calls the tune and we must dance, are you what you seem?
Is love the singer, singer, singer or the song
Is love the singer, singer, singer of the song?
Chorus
It didn't take too long to feel that I care for you
But too little time to be shown
It may be new but it is real, your eyes wear it too
Let's keep it growing, growing, growing, watch it grow
Let's keep it growing, growing, growing, watch it grow
Chorus
words and music by Kristin Lems c MCMLXXXIII Kleine
Ding Music (BMI)
