Steven Curtis Chapman/Geoff Moore
Matthew 5:13-16

"Too many hypocrites," I heard her say
"I even saw it in the headlines today
How can I follow God when His own people turn away"
She said, "Nobody's perfect but I just want to see Somebody living what they say they believe
If they've got all this world needs like they say
I wonder whay won't they give some away."

Chorus

Can (she, he, they) see God for who He really is
In what (she, he, they) see(s) in you and me
Can (she, he, they) see God for who He really is
For who He really is
Is all (she, he, they) really need(s) to see

He slips into church and he puts up his guard
They look so happy but his life's been so hard
He keeps his distance so they won't see the scars
It's just religion that's all dressed up in white
And God is love as long as you're living right
But does he know that Jesus also has scars
And His love can reach him no matter how far

Chorus

The skeptics are watching to see who wiill fall
While those disillusioned search for the Truth in it all
Maybe today we'll cross their paths unaware
And they'll stop and look at us. What will be there?
