Sitting in a traffic jam 11:52 p.m.

Just a few miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio

I take my pen and start to write

The thoughts that fill my head tonight

Nothing terribly profound

Just these simple words

That keep my heart anchored down

That keep my restless heart anchored down

I do, I do, I do, I do believe

I know, I know, I know, I know it's true, yeah

I do, I do, I do, I do believe

Lord, I believe in You

I believe in You

Now these can be confusing times

The skeptics posing as the wise

It's hard to see the light

Through all the shadows of the doubt

But You keep saying all the while

It takes the vision of a child

Looking through the eyes of faith to see reality

So once again I will say

I believe You're the life
You're the truth, You're the way
If this faith in You is blind
It's not to anything that's true
'Cause Your love opens up my eyes
To see that everything I need
Is found when I believe in You, yeah
