You tell me that I was created for you
That nobody else makes you feel like I do
And I want to believe that it's true
When you make all of these promises
Fabulous plans
You fill me with hope
Painting pictures so grand
But why after all of this time
Don't I know where I stand

Don't you know
What you stand to lose
If you don't
Then you're still confused

Walk away
If you're not here to stay
'cause I care about myself too much
And I've hurt enough
Walk away
Cos I'm not here to play
And if you're not really
Free to love
If you don't need my love
Then turn and walk away
Turn and walk away yeah yeah

You asked for my heart
And I gave you much more
Unselfish devotion
And emotion so pure
But how can you still be unsure
Well if I'm not the one
Then stop wasting my time
Give back the part of the heart that was mine
But know that
Another love like me
You'll never find

Don't you know
What you stand to lose
If you don't

Then you still can choose

Walk away

'cause I care about myself too much
And I've hurt enough
Walk away
Cos I'm not here to play
Free to love
If you don't need my love

I know that I will find someone who does
Someone who loves me just because
But if that would be too much
For you
Then walk away
Walk away walk away walk away then walk away then walk away then walk away

Walk away
And I've hurt enough
Walk away
Free to love
If you don't need my love
And I've hurt enough
Walk away
Free to love
If you don't need my love

Turn and walk away
Go ahead and walk away now
You go ahead and walk away now
Turn and walk away (repeat nine times)
(fades out)
