I am alone, on this dark and empty room
My heart beating slow, is anyone out there?
I looked to the sky, I am waiting for a sign
So throw up a flare, let me know that you're out there

I'm on a mission and I won't go back
You're in the distance and I need you bad
Too many times I've said goodbye
But now I'm saying hello

I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, find, things are hard
I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, what I have lost
Tears are falling, can't you see I'm dying for you, you
I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, what I have lost
Want you to find, find, find, things are hard

The closer we get, all the sadness starts to fade
And I don't have to pretend, pretend anymore

I'm on a mission and I won't go back
You're in the distance and I need you bad
Too many times I've said goodbye
But now I'm saying hello

I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, find, things are hard
I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, what I have lost
Tears are falling, can't you see I'm dying for you, you
I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, what I have lost
Want you to find, find, find, things are hard

Way back then when we were torn apart
It would feel like I was in the dark
And you returned to hear my call
And you came to find me

I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, find, things are hard
I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, what I have lost
Tears are falling, can't you see I'm dying for you, you
I want you to find me, want you to find me
Want you to find, find, what I have lost
Want you to find, find, find, things are hard.
